FRIENDS OF SCOUTING

THE PROMISE

Every week millions of Scouts raise their hand and make a promise. It's more than just a pledge to an organization. It represents a lifelong commitment to them and to the community they share.

It takes another kind of promise – the one within themselves – to help them grow into productive adults. Promises are what Scouting is all about.

Everyday, Scouts and their families participate in learning and doing activities centered on achieving three aims: character development, citizenship training and personal fitness.

TIMELESS VALUES MAKE LASTING IMPRESSIONS ON YOUTH.

SUCCESS

Our council has programs that are designed to prepare young people at every level for success as adults, whether that involves Cub Scouts acquiring basic skills, Scouts BSA earning awards for lifesaving, or young men and women gaining outdoor skills.

LEADERSHIP

In an age where young people are confronted with so many negative influences, Scouting provides guidance and role models built upon the timeless values of our families, friends and communities. Scouts gain a solid foundation of values that help them to become productive citizens and effective leaders. As adults, many Scouts honor these traditions, by returning to serve as adult leaders and positive role models for the next generation.

YOUR PROMISE

The success of Scouting depends on those who support it. That includes the work of adult volunteers, the encouragement of parents and the financial assistance of Friends of Scouting. After all, providing a quality program to a growing number of Scouts becomes more expensive each year. Your generous gift does more than simply cover our expenses. It serves as your personal promise to our Scouts today and our community tomorrow. Please make that promise today.

COMMUNITY

Community service programs such as Scouting for Food – collecting over 65,000 items, conservation improvements and individual Scout service projects are just some of the ways Scouts demonstrate their commitment to their community. Scout packs, troops, crews and posts have provided thousands of hours of community service to benefit all of our neighborhoods.
